Cindy,
I have really enjoyed having you as a roommate for four years. You've been a good friend to me and I'll always appreciate you, and if we go to the same college I bet we get in the same math class (that would be great)

Love ya, Kerri

Cindy,
You are a very sweet and wonderful person that I have enjoyed knowing. Stay sweet and I wish you best luck in the future

Love

Hey Baby,
Well we truly made a hole year in the same class. I have always thought you should get away out of here you should and don't settle for anything less than the best. Good luck with everything in life.

P.S. hope to see you on the field at Auburn.

Cindy,
Hey! You are a very special friend to me. I'm so glad we became friends. I know it was hard for you at first but you seem to fit in quick and easy. I'm hope our friendship continues to grow. I'm glad you've been there for me sometimes when I needed a shoulder to cry on. Yours was a good one. Remember our double dates. Boy, it was a blast! Especially when I got nailed dancing in my car making fun of Burk! Good luck in the future with everything you do. Good luck at Auburn to!

I wish we were going together. We would have so much fun! Whatever happens to both of us, let's stay in touch somehow! You're a friend I can't afford to lose!

Cindy,

You are the absolutely nicest person I have ever known. One day when I felt bad, you cheered me up by acting crazy. You are a very special friend to me, and I'll never forget you. How can I? One day you'll be head of my majorette + I'll be Drum Major at Auburn, so we'll always see each other! I'm looking forward to the frat parties + all other stuff at Auburn. Don't ever forget me, because I'll never forget you! Love, Cindy, I don't know how to begin! I have known you longer than anyone else here, and I am so glad you came to Oxford. I'm really sorry for everything that has happened between us (I think you know what I'm talking about). After everything, I still consider you a good friend. Best wishes!

And, we have known each other for four years and it seems we have drifted apart. Maybe because we have other things going on or we just haven't taken the time to do anything. You are a very sweet girl that I will always remember as your craft. I want to forget me when I get old. All I'm asking is for all those guys that are flirting with me. I'll be glad to hear from you. I hope you get everything you want! Love!

I'm sorry it has taken me so long to sign your annual!!
Don't think I have forgotten about you, because I haven't!!!
I really don't know where to begin, but I know you have been the greatest friend I could ever have. And I'm gonna miss you when you leave. It will be hard to adjust to it, because you'll be missing in my life! But you better keep in touch with me, and I know I'll be coming to see you in Auburn! Cindy, I LOVE you so much, words can't describe how much you mean to me! I wished we were only closer, but I know we have Boys in our lives now, & you know how they are! I will never forget you & your sweet smile, that always comfort me when I was feeling down. The smile that always made me laugh. But when your gone, that smile will always be in my heart & in my mind where ever I go. And I will cherish it forever!! But don't ever forget the times we had together! We had so much fun, did we not? But that's all gone now, only memories we can look back on. Just think we've got a life time of memories to go, & we're gonna make those the best!! Please don't ever forget me, & just remember, I'll always be here if you need me. I have a great shoulder to cry on. Your like a sister I never had, cause I did have one. And if I had of known her, I would want her to be just like you!!!! Kind & sweet, always there if you needed her! But — I can't believe it's almost over, all the times the friendships, the heart aches & all the gossiping! (Boy can we gossip!!) But remember me always! & go get 'em tiger! But I know you'll have no problem, you gorgeous thing! I'll be thinking about you, . . . . ALWAYS!!!!

"Hey Todd! What'd you do this summer?"

"Oh, the usual. I hung out at Moore's or the Lake. What'd you do?"

"I worked."

Summer and after school jobs were an important part of students lives. They provided students with experience and training, not to mention money.

But there was a hidden side of students just waiting to break loose anytime a moment of freedom lurked around the corner.

Students found an abundance of activities to engage in when given some extra time. More productive students worked to earn extra money, while still others took advantage of extra time to socialize at Moore's, or catch up on their homework. With a little ingenuity, students always found an activity that was worth devoting some attention to.

As the year progressed, a oneness in spirit was seen in school life. No two people are alike. We share similar experiences and yet we all react differerntly. A wide variety of people go to Oxford. Although each of us are individually distinguished from others by our personalities, we share the same enthusiastic bond of spirit.

Oxfords' pep rallies are the obvious forms of spirit. It gives us the chance to get together and show our spirit as a whole. But there is a different spirit that roams the halls. It comes from the support of our friends, working together to achieve a goal, and people loving each other. It is not always spoken of, but it is there.

Standing out in a crowd means being the best you can be. New goals were set as standards rose, and sacrifices were often necessary to accomodate new interests. Simple things like giving up ball games to be able to work and save money for a car, became just as important to some as making grades high enough to be named valedictorian.

Specialization became a necessity to avoid being lost in the crowd. Each person develops special interests and sets themselves apart through excellence in that area. Performing to utmost ability and forgetting past limits helped achievers overcome the odds and come out on top.

HOMECOMING

They're out there all right lurking in the shadows of the weekend. They are virtually undetectable in the monotony of Wednesday, but they are unstoppable on Friday. This week was different. Yellow Jacket fans were more excited and anxious to get to the game. You could feel the spirit gathering between the students. It was Homecoming and "To State was Our Drive."

As the football team practiced all week getting ready for the big game against John Carroll, the girls went out anxiously shopping for that perfect outfit.

Homecoming brought with it various traditions such as the homeroom door competition, which was won by Mrs. McGarity and Mrs. Glennis Parris' homeroom. It also brought the return of the homecoming parade and the second annual senior parade. But, the most noticeable change in tradition was made when the Homecoming dance was moved to Thursday night.

After last year's absence of the homecoming parade everyone was excited about its return this year. Students worked long hours to get their floats ready for the parade. The best float was won by the eighth grade, however, there were no losers. All were WINNERS!

As we cooled down from the parade, the time came for the guys to get out their cottages and for the girls to put on that special outfit they spent so long putting together. The mood was set and everyone was ready. All was quiet as the first couples arrived. There was time to socialize, get pictures made, and to see who was with who. Instead of listening to records, we had our own local band, "Mistique," to play. They rocked us through our best homecoming dance ever. It was definitely a night to remember.

Finally, it was officially homecoming day. You could feel the ELECTRICITY between the students, as we packed into the gym. We may have been cramped and hot, but JACKET SPIRIT was floating through the air. All that mattered was that Oxford was going to be victorious. As the pep rally went on, we showed our devotion to our team, cheerleaders, and band. To bring it to a close, we came together to sing the Alma Mater. The rest was left up to the team. It was up to them to make Homecoming 85 complete.

Finally, no more waiting for the big game. The Yellow Jacket Team was definitely ready for John Carroll. It was the night that we were to show them what that JACKET PRIDE WAS ALL ABOUT. The Jacket fans cheered the team to a 32-6 victory over John Carroll.

"FCS IS AWESOME" says Lee Baughn, a senior member. Lee's feelings toward Fellowship of Christian Students seems to reflect the general feelings of all FCS members.

Fellowship of Christian Students is an organization that is dedicated to spreading the news of Jesus Christ.

The annual FCS Spring Youth Rally was a huge success. "Daybreak," a local contemporary Christian band, was the main attraction of the evening. There were at least ten decisions made by students around the area that night alone. FCA president, Judy Thagard gives the credit to God for the success of this event, as well as all others sponsored by Fellowship of Christian Students.

The members of FCS realize that the foundation of their club is Jesus Christ. He sacrificed His life for the fulfillment of every willing follower of His word. Without this love, the Fellowship of Christian Students organization would not be possible. Jesus Christ . . . THIS ONE'S FOR YOU!

The best way to learn is to do. That's been the philosophy of FFA since the organization started back in 1928, and it is one that stands firm today. FFA members are high school students of a national horticulture who are studying to be horticulturists, supervisors, and managers. The career possibilities are endless and they prepare to enter the workplace by getting hands-on experience. Today the agricultural needs of the world are a major issue. An issue that FFA members will impact with the training they gain today.

HOSA — A Heartwarming Experience

HOSA is Health Occupation Students of America. The members of HOSA are a dedicated group that help the community and the school throughout the year. They help organize the yearly blood drive here at the school and aided by their sponsor, Mrs. Ann Fisher, visit different hospitals and doctor's offices during the year. The persons of HOSA take the course because they would like to continue pursuing a medical career when they graduate from Oxford high school. The members of HOSA can truly say that "The hands of HOSA mold the health care of tomorrow."

No band is complete without a director. Our band is lucky enough to have two of the best directors anywhere. Not only do they plan all of the fieldshows for the football season, but they transform these teenage music makers into concert greats. The Oxford High School Marching Band is one of the top bands of this county. This is partly because of their fine directors. Mr. Barker and Mr. Underwood; This One's For You.

CHOIR 'NOTE' ABLE SUCCESS

Traditionally the schedule for Robed Choir included preparation for the Christmas and Spring Concerts as well as competition, to achieve the perfection the Oxford Choirs are known for BUT the most memorable event of 1985 would have to be when Robed Chor went caroling through the school. As we sang popular Christmas carols it brought back to the school some Christmas cheer that seemed to be missing

In all the 1985-1986 school year will be remembered as a year full of tradition as well as the unconventional

OUR OWN OPTIONS

Plan ahead. Don't wait until the last minute. As students, we took advantage of these clichés in courses which prepared us for our future careers. We were fortunate that for just about any profession we decided to pursue, there was some kind of preparatory class to help us get a head start. From welding to commercial sewing, the courses were ours for taking.

GOOD CITIZEN

This year's DAR Good Citizen Award went to Lynn Houck. Lynn was chosen through faculty voting because of her good character, willingness to work and her involvement in extra-curricular activities. To receive this award from the NSDAR, she had to exemplify outstanding qualities of Leadership, Dependability, Service and Patriotism at school and in the community. Lynn is a member of FBLA, yearbook staff, Fellowship of Christian Students, Culberson Hi-Y, choral, volleyball, Sr Beta and Who's Who. She is also a member of the First Baptist Church of DeArmanville where she is president of the Youth Council and a member of the choir. After graduation, Lynn plans to attend Judson College where she will double major in music and business.

SENIORS

This one's for you team, just to let you know everybody cares about all those times you hung in there. For all the sweat, bruises, and broken bones you suffered. For all the times you stuck in there to make Oxford the best!

This year began with a farewell to Coach Bill Burgess and with a hello to Coach Robert Herring. As anyone can see, Coach Herring brought with him a lot of new ideas. He worked the team hard so that we could have the best football season ever.

The season opened with the Jacket's beating out Woodlawn 14-6. The crowds traveled to Birmingham to see the first game with Coach Herring at the helm. As the game went on, the Jackets' excitement continued, but winning can't go on forever. The Jackets traveled on to Heflin hoping for another win but their hopes were shattered at one of the biggest games of the season. Our team hung in there through the whole game, but the Heflin Tigers went on to win — 14-6.

Homecoming was a breeze. The mighty Yellow Jackets shut out the John Carroll Cavaliers — 32-6.

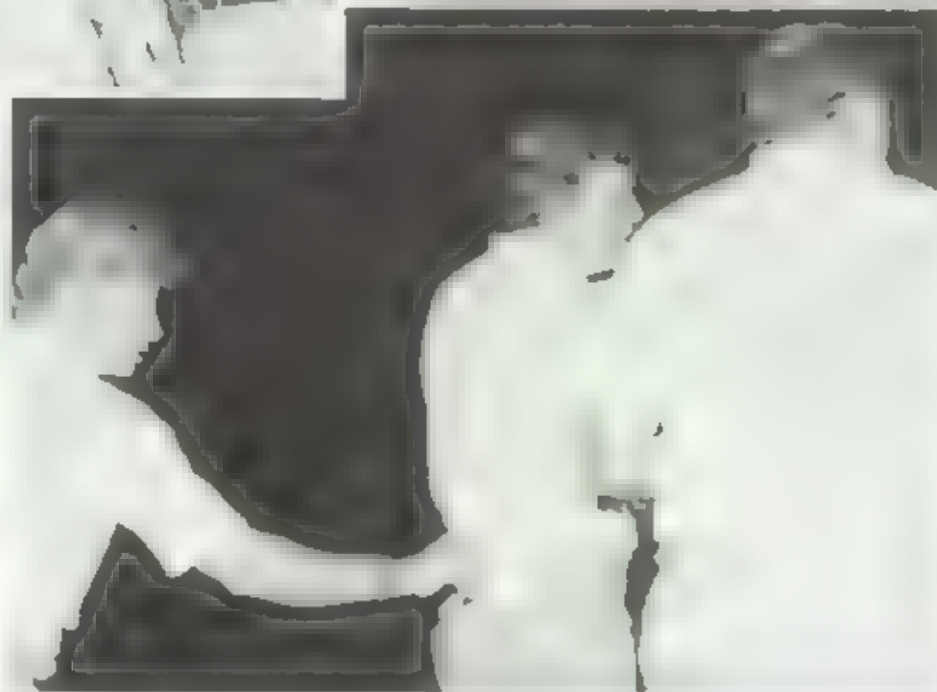

Then came the game to decide whether or not the mighty Jackets were going to the state play-offs. It was Senior night and the cold rain came down, but this did not stop them from out playing and out scoring Jacksonville 18-6.

We were now in the state play-offs and came face-to-face with the Gardendale Rockets. Dedicated fans traveled back to Birmingham but only to see Oxford beaten.

It was a tough season of wins and losses. The players played with their heart and soul. We saw seniors come and go. And we saw games won and lost. The cheers from the fans and the tears from the players will always remain in our memories. For all you do ... THIS ONE'S FOR YOU!

Senior sponsor night is a special night for all seniors. On this night senior football players are recognized for their years of hard work. Each senior is asked to choose a girl of their choice to sponsor him. This year we have decided to change tradition and have the sponsor and the player pictured together. Even though the escorts for his year's sponsors are not pictured, we would like to express our appreciation to these young men for their time. We the Yearbook Staff of 1986 would like to wish all seniors GOOD LUCK!!

VARSITY MEMORIES

Dec. 28-Dec. 31, 1985. These four days we, the Oxford varsity cheerleaders will never forget. Out of 65 squads, representing 37 states in the International Cheerleader Competition our squad placed 5th Runner-up and won a special award for the Best Use of Gymnastics. The excitement and pride we felt can never be adequately expressed with words. Every part of our trip was filled with memories we shall never forget. All the hard work, aches, pains and sacrifices were made worthwhile when we ran up to the stage to receive our awards.

Our motto this season has been "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." We believed this and proved it during those four days in Nashville. We are proud of being from Oxford, Alabama and Jacket Pride will always remain in our hearts.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

The first Softball team at Oxford was really great. Their regular season wins were 11 with only 6 losses. They finished 2nd in regular season standings and 3rd in the County Tournament. Donna Grizzard was selected for All County Tournament team, All Section team, the Anniston Star All County team, and she was also voted by the coaches as the County's Most Valuable Player. Ruth Shaw was picked All County Tournament and Anniston Star All County team. Banquet Awards went to Donna Grizzard, Big Stick Award, for her .667 batting average, 10 homeruns, 36 RBIs, and .903 fielding average; Melinda Sheppard, Golden Glove Award, for her .917 fielding average; and Amy Feltman, Hustle Award.

Kneeling: L. McDowell, M. Mallet, M. Sheppard, L. Champion, B. Akies, S. Dixon, S. Crump, G. Screws, D. Grizzard. Standing: P. Kubasiak, T. Knox, R. Shaw, K. Harmon, M. Sheppard, K. Burroughs, C. Bonner, A. Feltman.

Hulk Hogan

No Less

No less is right! The Hulkster may be a little bigger than these guys, but not better. The Oxford High School Wrestling Team can turn an opponent into a living pretzel faster than anybody around. And why shouldn't they be able to; they have the greatest coach. They wrestle their hearts out, and win or lose get off the mat proud of themselves. They have every right to be; they were Calhoun County Champions and runners-up at Sectionals. They won 12 of their regular season matches and only lost 2. Next time you see the Hulkster or the Human Fly you just remember that they learned all their cute little tricks from the wrestlers at OHS.

OHS WRESTLING CHEERLEADERS

The Wrestling team at Oxford has a cheering squad to be proud of. These girls work very hard to be the best squad in the area. They practice often and it shows if you ever go to a match. The girls, along with their sponsor Mrs. McCall, go to all the matches and even to state competitions. They make signs that decorate the wrestling room walls to show their pride in the team and themselves. Their cheering abilities, grades in school, and their character in general are the most important factors that Mrs. McCall looks for in her cheerleaders. We often hear that a cheering squad is like a family and these girls fit this description perfectly.

A Winning Season

This year was one of the best years ever for the girls' basketball team. They had a 17-4 record which took a lot of determination, hard work, and pride. In the Area 12 competition they lost to sub-state finals but were one of only eight left when they were beat. They won the county tournament and three girls made all-county: Michelle Towns, Ramonia Gilbert and Reagan Herring

For the past several years, Oxford has had a powerful basketball team. Overlooked by many of the students, the team is respected and admired all around the county. This year's team was no exception. Each player was challenged to perform at his best in almost every meet. These challenges led to many members breaking personal records. With Coach Davis at the helm, the future of Oxford basketball looks promising.

Talented and Awesome

This year's 1986 OHS baseball team finished with 14 wins and 5 losses.

This explains the title "Talented and Awesome."

The team finished second in the area with a 4-2 mark. Gordy Adams, Doug Champion, and Barney Turner made East-West All Stars Team and All County Teams.

Gary Abbott lead the team in hitting with a .426 average. Anthony Garner batted .400 as the designated hitter.

The team was mostly made up of underclassmen, so they are looking forward to next year's baseball season because of the returning players. This year's Seniors will be hard to replace because of the talent and leadership they provided.

We are proud of the 1986 baseball team and wish to congratulate them on a great season.

The Task Role of the Local Board of Education

Americans believe in local control of education. They believe that their schools should be responsive to the needs of their children and to the needs of the general public. The instrument through which local citizen's interest are expressed, and through which lay control is affected, is the local school board. The board of education is the most direct link between the public and its schools.

"Thusly, the board of education has the task of representing the public interest in the developing policies for the operation of the school system. Sometimes this is an awesome task. Always it is a job which carries with it heavy responsibility.

Tardy Seniors. Two students caught fighting in the halls. Students forgetting to sign out. Someone having a purse stolen. Teacher conferences. Faculty meetings. Parent conferences.

And if that's not enough, take all the complaints and the daily headlines of newspapers around the state proclaiming that educators weren't producing educated students.

The administrative life, never known for being calm, was even more hectic. In addition to everyday discipline and scheduling problems, academic, advanced and honors courses.

It didn't look as if administrators would sit back and relax for a long time.

As we remember happy yesterdays spent together — the years so rich in tradition at OHS, we are saddened by the thought of leaving it all behind. Only now are we aware of the precious moments we have taken for granted

In the years to come, we will have many, many experiences that we will want to tell each other, but then we will feel the distance once more, and realize that along with graduation and maturation came separation

We have grown, and in doing so, we have seen love and found disappointments. We have seen hurt and felt pain, but now we turn from the past and see the goals we hope to reach. We do not really know what the future holds for us, but we do know that we will be strong enough to handle it.

Oxford High School has made a lasting impression on each of us, and now, as we prepare to go our separate ways, we pause to remember all the good times, the laughter, and even the tears

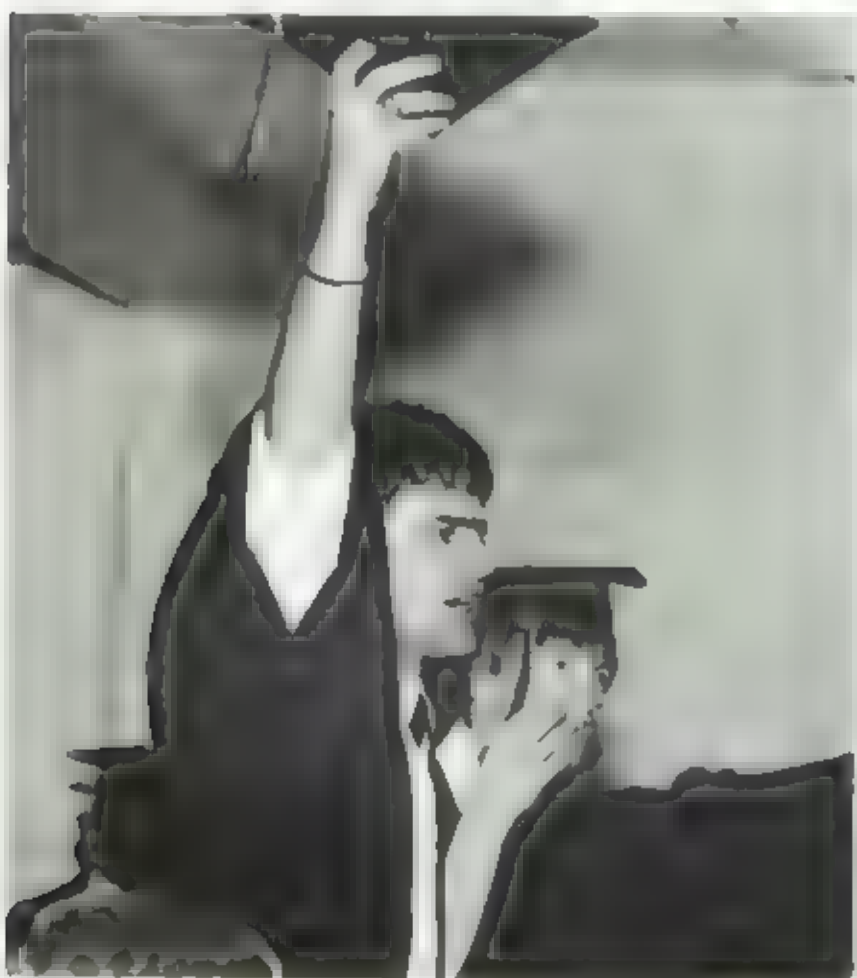

I'm insecure about taking that first step . . . but I'm anticipating meeting new challenges.

Some of the fondest memories of the Class of 1986 were the times that we discovered important parts of ourselves and experienced new emotions.

For some it was band or FBLA. For others, it was a sport or two. Participants discovered a nonstop will that kept us going in a positive direction. We practiced whenever and wherever possible — always moving forward.

Still there were times when no one could be categorized. The times were those when we all gathered for a celebration, for a special picture, or for the lack of anything better to do. On occasions like this, we learned about each other; we grew together and made memories.

But all good things must come to an end. Here is where we say our farewell to each of you, the Class of 1986.

This One's for you!

The day began with the Senior class gathering outside the gym to await the cue for their entrance. As the band played "The Way We Were" the seniors made their walk. When all were in place the band changed its tune to "Champions" as the football team came into the gym. When the seniors were seated Mrs. Martin read the class poem. This brought back many memories of the first days of school for this class. Later on into the pep rally the famous U N A M A N, Brad Edwards, made his last appearance in honor of the seniors. The senior football players gave their thoughts of the game and showed their pride in both the team and the school. At the close of the pep rally Mrs. McFarland led the senior class and the rest of the student body in the singing of the Alma Mater. The pep rally ended, but the excitement of the senior class stayed the rest of the day.

It's always hard to get the story starting
When we think of another Oxford Senior Class as parting
The Class of '86 — as all others is unique — one of a kind;
But will stir up some memories that come to mind.

They began as the first fourth grade in the new Middle School,
And they enjoyed rooms with no walls and air conditioning to stay cool.
Grades 4 through 7 as a whole stayed very quiet
The students studied, grew and had some fun; but no riot.

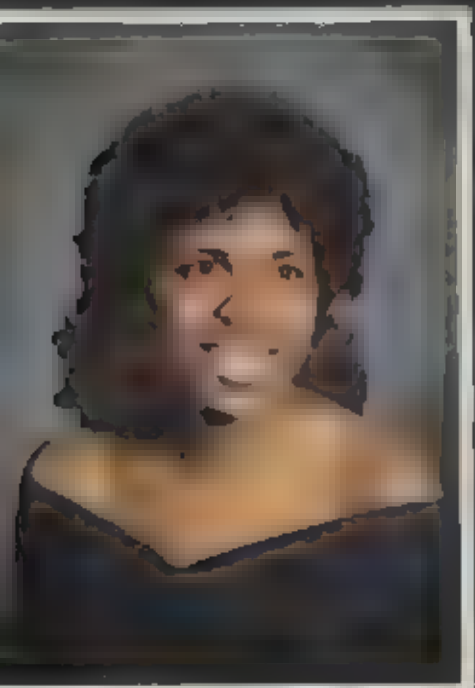

Eighth grade began a little more activity and a little talk
And this is the class that put the Volkswagon on the sidewalk
As 8th graders they had Mrs. Ross while she was expecting a child
And she froze or burned the students up — until they were wild
As freshmen they experienced the year of the big snow
And won the Homecoming float contest and they were all aglow
As sophomores they repeated that Homecoming win
And Nona Sims wiped out garbage cans with the Driver's Ed car she was in.

Well — if up to then the class seems average and meek
As Juniors they were fired up — Alive as a red hot poker Individuals began to be identified by their strange quirks
Such as Brad Edwards & Doug Champion in females' skirts or Christmas trees, ghostly shapes or even Tuna Man —
And who will forget the females making off with the school van?
The "explosion experts" went to work in welding class
And Pam Setliff's tango with Senor DeLapp helped her to pass.
The Who's Who pictures were made at Holiday Inn and Kandy Warcop, thrown in the pool, came out neat as a pin.
2nd Period Chemistry put "Booper" Baughn in the scene
And Mrs. Wigley's 7th period History class was really mean.
Rachel Young, learning the Heimlich Manuever nearly did choke
Because Mrs. Fisher thought it was only a practical joke Shannon Hall fell out of the kick line of the football field and Britton & McConathy in camouflage will never yield The class began to wonder if Faith Woodruff was for real and many girls left school when wedding bells began to peal
One day, teachers missed many students from class
But it was just the first annual fishing tournament for bass
Now we have arrived at the start of the senior year
And we share some memories that could bring a tear
We barely remember when we went to lunch unescorted
And didn't fear detention hall, if class had already started
But this year brought some things that were brand new
A coat of paint and hall lights really brightened the view.
We got a whole new set of football coaches on the football scene
And a designer Yellow Jacket painted on the field that's really keen
For one, Rowan Busey hasn't been injured this whole season
And number 10 jersey has really been swapped around in girls for some reason
We've had unusual pep rallies outside early in the year
And could you believe Homecoming parade — so seniors made a float
With TOGA theme & party — complete with a real boat.
Everyone is pleased Melissa and Ricky are back together.
And you can find Gordy Adam's fan club meeting — where ever
This class boasts its own rock star is Steven Waites
And rooms are reserved for Florida already — before it's too late!
Now the bands' got some great songs left to play
The team has another big regular game today
We've still got Christmas concerts, basketball spring sports, all so fast.

Clubs will meet, homework done, and tests must be passed.

So the Senior year goes quickly by — before you want it to
And all the memories we hope will be good for each of you.
The riding around, talking, clowning with your friends
The activities of ballgames & all — we hate for it to end
The excitement in the air on the night of the Prom.
The friends you've made, enjoyed — and some who've passed away
Life never stays exactly as it is on this your Senior Day.
Enjoy it all — finish with happiness your great Senior year
And remember when you meet, the words you hold so dear.

As we look back, it has a long time since we all entered school together in the first grade. It was an adventure for us, because we were afraid of what life would be like at school, the friends we would discover and the memories we would make.

Well, we have another adventure coming up soon. Only one more year of high school until we graduate, then we go out into a totally new real world. It may seem scary to some, but I think everyone has to admit that they are glad that we are ALMOST THERE!!!

The Sophomore year is one of great excitement. It is the year students take Driver's Education. All "all most 16" year old students look forward to getting behind the wheel for the first time and this is the year it happens. John Mosher is shown here getting ready to practice his driving skill on the simulator in class.

Catching Some Z's

Some people have mastered the art of sleeping in class with their eyes open. Others had to be satisfied with the old method of laying their head down and risk getting caught.

The main reason students sleep in class is to relieve boredom. Another reason is because they got in bed late the night before.

Some students are willing to take the risk of sleeping in class. It is a tricky job to pull off but if done right, can be quite satisfying.

1985-86 In Perspective

The world held its breath during a dizzying procession of terrorist nightmares. The hijacking of TWA Flight 847 is just one example.

Other disasters were both natural and manmade. Long simmering South Africa erupted in apartheid violence, while a volcano and famine killed thousands more. Yet there were reasons for hope — and unprecedented gush of charity fund raising, the long-awaited renovation of Lady Liberty, and a summit meeting that held, if not answers, promises

On January 28, 1986 the nation applauded the Challenger's crew, including teacher Christa McAuliffe, in a seemingly perfect launch. Moments later, a nation stood in grief

It definitely was a year to remember. The First day of school saw many changes, such as the new paint job. The mighty Yellow Jackets started their football season with a good start, but a couple of them took the term "break a leg" a little too seriously. Along with football season came Homecoming. Each class worked on the float, and each homeroom decorated a door. That night, Cindy Stewart was crowned Homecoming Queen and Teresa Bailey was crowned Jr. High Homecoming Queen.

The year rolled on with such events as Vocational Education Week, District and State competitions, and Youth Government day. The year was finally concluded with the graduation of the class of 1986. It was our year, molded by the vast and diverse character of who we were, and had become

Eighth Grade

No longer are we dumb seventh graders! At last there are some people at L.H.S. who are younger than we are. After being here for a year, we really know our way around campus and know that we really can make it from the annex to the main building in the five minutes allowed. We remember how we panicked last year if our lockers didn't open the first time. We look forward to being Freshmen and getting to eat a la carte in the lunchroom.

WE ARE STRONG
WE ARE MIGHTY
WE'RE THE CLASS OF 1990!

Seventh Grade —

Taken By Surprise

"Don't ask me, I'm new here.", is a common phrase heard from seventh grade students.

The seventh grade year was a time for being picked on, growing up, and accepting responsibilities. After the shock of a new school, new faces, and unfamiliar classes wore off, the seventh grade class realized that they had to get it together, the class of '91 got involved in school life.

As they finally became accustomed to the pep rallies, their enthusiasm was shown through the winning of the spirit bell. As their saying goes, "Lots of laughs, Lots of fun, We're the class of 91."

THE NEW KID'S IN TOWN

For all you do

Faces . . . pleasant, Surprised, posed, and priceless. The faces of our friends . . .
caught in a moment . . .
captured for our memory.

Fashion in '86 ranged from the unique to the bizarre

Jams — Wild prints and colors covered many legs during the summers of '85 and '86

Coca-Cola — The "Real Thing" has become the "fashionable thing" as you see displayed on shirts and pants

Swatches Wild and crazy designs. These were the first in a line of creative time pieces

Shoes — Shoes ranged from high-top tennis shoes to high-top boots. Dexters were a popular style and Reebok tennis shoes were also frequently seen

Miami Vice — This trend setting style is pleasing to the eye. You saw many young men at OHS dressing in bright colored jackets and no socks strutting around the halls.

Sunglasses — Mirrored lenses, Wayfarers, and horn rims are some of the eye-catching shades you saw around

Tank tops — Showing of muscles and tans was a good reason for wearing these shirts. Tanks in bright colors worn under or by themselves was a sharp style in '86

Hair styles — prim and proper or strange and outrageous. Bobs, perms, and 'n's were some of the styles this year. Bleaching hair in sections of all of your hair also stuck a few people's fancy

As you can tell '86 was a year for individuality. Students did not follow fads. They dressed for themselves.

Cindy,

Well, where do I begin? We're seniors!
We finally made it. Ever since you moved here we've been the best of friends and I hope it stays that way. I'll never forget all the fun times we shared in Band. I'll also never forget our song, "The 12 days of Christmas" or whatever it was. I hope after we graduate you won't forget me, but you were always better than me. <sup>Ha!</sup>
I hope you get everything you want and deserve out of life. You've always been a great friend and you keep me laughing all the time.
I hope you do good at Auburn and maybe one day I'll watch you on T.V. Well I gotta go. I just want you to know I love ya and I always will.

Stay Sweet!

Love ya,
Shusty

Cindy,

Well - it looks like we are finally seniors. I think that we have been through more together than anybody. We have had some of the best times. Remember when we went to Port St.
weird. We acted so crazy. And we thought we were going to be happy to get home. When we were home for 2 days we wanted to go back. Remember when we were in band together. We were so happy. What about when we were in Century Plaza and back. Remember all of our spend the night parties that we had. We happy at home when we went to Ft. Pierce. "Mr. Regier" that was so hilarious. Don't forget any of these times.

I know that we aren't as close as we used to be. I'm sorry it's been so long. I know it is not that we all change and find other things. We grow older. That is bad but it changes a lot. You are still one of my best friends and I want you to know that I will always be there if you need a friend. I hope that you will be there for me. You have always been the best person to talk to when I have had problems. When we both go our "separate" ways next year to college, I hope that we can keep in touch. It is going to be so weird. I can't imagine not seeing you in evening. And, I just want you to know that I love you and that I wish you the best of everything. I am happy that we have spent only great times together. You are a senior. Maybe that can change. We still have about 11 more months. But the way you are and good luck at Auburn. Well it is time to go.

Cindy, Thanks for being such a great friend over the past years. The really grows to like your personality day by day.
 I wish you the best of luck down in Auburn. (WHEE EAGLE) Anyway, I know you come to the football game, look me up, I like to go out with guys you might know you and me will keep in touch. Again, Good Luck!

Cindy,

Well! What can I say! We are seniors and well be departing soon! I am so glad that we became such good friends. At all began in the 9th grade, Mrs. Glendon's class. Remember when you first came here. You were terrified because you were so afraid everyone hated you! I kept telling you that you were paranoid. And you were because I look at all the friends you have now. A lot of what has to do with your crazy but sweet personality! Please remember all of our good times like when we went to white water with my church <sup>1st</sup>. we almost drown and try to swim in 4 foot deep water and you really almost drowned in the tube falls. @ your top on your bathing suit falls off & we got attacked by killer bees. @ you drop your good friend the good thing was you met someone who proposed to you! Remember when I spent the night and got ready for spook day at school! You almost used all of the hot water! We have had some GREAT times, when we went all over America looking for that little bag. We went to the police station and couldn't find it and it was right beside us the whole time! That was hilarious! Well, I'll always remember all of our good times and I'll cherish them forever! After graduation let's stay in touch. We'll have many more good times. If ever you need someone to talk to just call me up. You know I'll always be there for you! Be sweet and keep your smile up! I love you and I love your family! Be good & stay sweet!

Love Always,

Cindy,

Hey girl! Well I finally got around to signing your annual. We have been through a lot together. You were always there to listen to my problems and I hope you thought you could always depend on me. I hope you get everything out of life you deserve, because that's all. You are all kinds of worker. You always work for what you want. Be good Cindy! Always stay the way you are!
